

SENIOR STUDENT PEN PROFILE

Name	Sam Palomar
What position do you hold?	Art Ambassador
What are you studying?	Maths, Physics, Art
Why are you studying at Richard Hale?	The school provides a friendly environment where you can have fun and work hard, which also provides an excellent academic teaching.
What does your Senior Student position mean to you?	It means I am finally able to express my understanding and love towards my subject and pass it onto others.
Why did you apply for your position?	I applied for this role as I want to improve the art department across all years but also improving my communication skills.
How do you fulfil the school's values?	Respect others - listen to any problems and suggestions that occur. Aim High - I use my free time efficiently by completing homework and revising in advance. Show Commitment - I am eager to learn and show interest in class.
Do you have any further comments about Richard Hale Sixth Form	Richard Hale has the ability to shape a bright, successful future for all students and create disciplined young adults ready for what lies ahead.