

SENIOR STUDENT PEN PROFILE

Name	Samuel Ward
What position do you hold?	Music Ambassador
What are you studying?	Music, Drama, Maths
Why are you studying at Richard Hale?	When I visited I met very welcoming staff, and I loved the atmosphere of the school.
What does your Senior Student position mean to you?	I love music and am proud to be able to bring my passion for the subject to others.
Why did you apply for your position?	I wanted to be an important member of the music department, so I can help closely with events like House Music.
How do you fulfil the school's values?	Respect others - I will give anyone the opportunity to show their musical talents, without judgement. Aim High - I believe the best way to achieve high grades is to believe you can achieve them. From then on if you put the work in, the sky's the limit. Show Commitment - I joined the school at the start of Year 12 and have participated in as many performing arts events as possible, including House Drama, House Music, Senior Production, and other smaller concerts.
Do you have any further comments about Richard Hale Sixth Form	A friendly and welcoming sixth form to external students, and a great place to learn, with an excellent house system and extracurricular opportunity.
