This policy is reviewed and updated annually to ensure that candidate behaviour in the examination room at Richard Hale School is managed in accordance with current requirements and regulations.

References in this policy to GR, ICE and SMPP refer to the JCQ publications General Regulations for Approved Centres, Instructions for conducting examinations and Suspected Malpractice: Policies and Procedures.

Purpose of the policy

The purpose of this policy is to confirm that candidate behaviour in the examination room at Richard Hale School is managed in line with JCQ regulations.

1. Briefing candidates

To ensure candidates are aware of the standard of behaviour that is required in the examination room, Richard Hale School will:

- ensure the JCQ Information for candidates (coursework, non-examination assessments, on-screen tests, social media and written examinations) is distributed to all candidates whether electronically or in hard copy format prior to assessments and/or examinations taking place (GR 5.8)
- ensure candidates are also made aware of the content of the JCQ Unauthorised Items and Warning to Candidates posters (GR 5.8)
- prior to assessments and/or examinations taking place, ensure candidates are briefed on what they must and must not do when sitting written examinations and/or on-screen tests, and when producing coursework and/or non-examination assessments (GR 5.8).

At Richard Hale School candidates are made aware of JCQ information/briefed by:

- A briefing session prior to the Year 11 Mock Examinations led by the Exams Officer and SLT Member with overall responsibility for Examinations
- A handbook containing the latest posters and guidance as recommended by JCQ
- regular update of Examination Information on the school website.

2. Candidate malpractice

- 'Malpractice', means any act, default or practice which is a breach of the Regulations (SMPP 1.2)
- Inappropriate behaviour by a candidate in the examination room is deemed 'candidate malpractice' (SMMP 2)
- 'Candidate malpractice' means malpractice by a candidate in connection with any examination or assessment, including the preparation and authentication of any controlled assessments, coursework or non-examination assessments, the presentation of any practical work, the compilation of portfolios of assessment evidence and the writing of any examination paper (SMPP 2)
- Failure by a centre to notify, investigate and report to an awarding body all allegations of malpractice or suspected malpractice constitutes malpractice in itself (SMPP 1.7)
- Suspected malpractice means all alleged or suspected incidents of malpractice (SMPP, Definitions).

Examples of inappropriate behaviour/actions that constitute 'candidate malpractice' are provided in the final section of this policy.

3. Instructions for conducting examinations - Malpractice in the examination room

The following requirements are applied at Richard Hale School:

- Candidates are under formal examination conditions from the moment they enter the room in which they will be taking their examination(s) until the point at which they are permitted to leave. Any malpractice suspected or actual, from this point must be reported to the relevant awarding body (ICE 19.1)
- Where a candidate is being disruptive, the invigilator must warn the candidate that he/she may be removed from the examination room. The candidate must also be warned that the awarding body will be informed and may decide to penalise them, which could include disqualification (ICE 24.1)
- The Head of Centre must report to the awarding body immediately all cases of suspected or actual malpractice in connection with the examination (ICE 24.1)
- Form JCQ/M1 - Report of suspected candidate malpractice must be completed (ICE 24.1)
- The Head of Centre has the authority to remove a candidate from the examination room but should only do so if the candidate would disrupt others by remaining in the room (ICE 24.3)
- Where candidates commit malpractice, the awarding body may decide to penalise them, which could include disqualification. Candidates should be warned of the possible penalties an awarding body may apply as detailed in the JCQ publication Suspected Malpractice: Policies and Procedures (ICE 24.4)
- In cases of suspected malpractice, examination scripts must be packed as normal and Form JCQ/M1 must be submitted separately to the relevant awarding body (ICE 24.6).

4. Roles and Responsibilities

Invigilators

- Be vigilant and remain aware of incidents or emerging situations, looking out for malpractice (ICE 20.2)
- Warn a disruptive candidate that he/she may be removed from the examination room (ICE 24.1)
- Record what has happened and actions taken on the exam room incident log (ICE 24.1)
- Inform the Examinations Officer as soon as practical of any suspected incidents of malpractice.

Exams Officer

- Ensure that the JCQ Information for Candidates documents (coursework, non-examination assessments, on-screen tests, social media and written examinations) are distributed to all candidates prior to assessments and/or examinations taking place and that candidates are also be made aware of the content of the JCQ Unauthorised Items and Warning to Candidates posters (GR 5.8)
- Ensure the JCQ Unauthorised Items and Warning to Candidates posters are displayed in a prominent place for all candidates to see prior to entering the examination room (GR 5.8)
- Where a candidate is being/has been disruptive in the examination room, warn the candidate that the awarding body will be informed and may decide to penalise them, which could include disqualification (ICE 24.1).

Head of Centre

- Where a candidate is seriously disrupting others, makes the decision to remove the candidate from the examination room but should only do so if the candidate would disrupt others by remaining in the room (ICE 24.1)
- Report to the awarding body immediately all cases of suspected or actual malpractice in connection with the examination by completing form JCQ/M1 (ICE 24.3).
